

Convention

Who Are We

Deep Focus Film Maker Convention is a convention dedicated to bringing together resources and educational information for film makers and aspiring film makers in the Mid Ohio Valley.

Since 2014 Exploding Tarantula Entertainment has been dedicated to helping independent film makers around the world realize their dreams of producing films.

The Convention

Guest of the convention have the opportunity to meet with area filmmakers, talent agents, film commission representatives, technical advisors, and more to learn about the resources our area has for small budget filmmakers.

Guests also have the opportunity to participate in lectures, Q&A sessions, and workshops with film making experts to learn new skills in marketing, cinematography, lighting, acting, and more.

The Festival

Since 2016

Exploding Tarantula Entertainment has been proud to sponsor to Summer Screams Horror Fest, a film festival dedicated to showcasing the best new short horror films from around the world. This year we are excited to announce the addition of the One Frame Film Festival, a film festival designed to showcase brilliant and exciting film makers in a variety of genres. As part of the festival's commitment to providing outstanding educational resources and experiences to are film makers, the festival will run along side the Deep Focus Film Making Convention in 2022
